2009 FORD WORLD MEN'S CURLING CHAMPIONSHIP

DRAW TO THE BUTTON COMPETITION

As most of you already know, the Ford World Men's Curling Championship is being held in beautiful Moncton, New Brunswick April 4th to 12th, 2009. In addition to the excitement and competition of the best curlers in the world, many other activities are planned during the week.

The Draw to the Button competition provides an opportunity for curling clubs from the different regions of the Maritimes to participate in this competition. Qualifiers from the curling club level will advance to the playoffs in Moncton during The Worlds. The first playoff will be held at Curling Beausejour in Moncton on April 10, 2009 where six people will qualify to advance to the semi finals. The semi final and the finals will be held at the Moncton Coliseum on April 11th and 12th, 2009 during fifth end breaks of playoff and championship games. Prizes will be awarded for the first, second and third place finishers.

Every club is welcome to participate. It's simple – run a draw to the button competition within your club and send us your winner. There is no entry fee and a gift package will be awarded to all participants competing in the first playoff round.

Contact us by email or mail with your club name and the name of the person from your club who will complete in the Draw to the Button competition at the 2009 Ford World Men's Curling Championship in Moncton.
