

GRAND TRANSOCEANIC MATCH

"SPECTATORS FUN SPIEL"

Presented by Delta Beauséjour

Tuesday April 7th, 2009 - - - 8:00 A.M. to 1:00 P.M.

The Grand Transoceanic Match (GTM) is a Funspiel, organized for spectators attending the Ford World Men's Curling Championship. We encourage participants from all countries, men and women to sign up and join us for a fun time on the ice.

- ◆ To be held at the Beaver Curling Club, 73 Capitol Ave, Moncton
- ◆ There will be a total of 5 sheets of ice available
- ◆ Maximum 20 teams (80 curlers)
- ◆ Each team should include at least one member of each sex
- ◆ 2 – 2 end games per team to be played in the morning
- ◆ Brooms and sliders will be available free of charge to those who need them
- ◆ In addition, curling supplies will be available for purchase

- ◆ Participants to register (with payment) at the Moncton Coliseum at "The Patch"
- ◆ Registration will open on Friday April 3 and continue all weekend
- ◆ Cutoff for registration will be Sunday evening
- ◆ Entry fee is only $35.00 CDN per person (tax included) and includes
 - Continental breakfast starting at 0800
 - Lunch at 12 noon
 - Prizes
- ◆ Additional luncheon tickets can be purchased for $25.00
- ◆ There will be a cash bar available

- ◆ Curlers should be at the Beaver Curling Club by 8:00 A.M. to be registered for a team
- ◆ Teams will be piped on the ice at 8:50 am
- ◆ Team pictures will be taken
- ◆ Participants must wear either curling shoes or clean running shoes
- ◆ Ice will not be cleaned nor pebbled between games; please help to keep it clean

Updated information on the GTM event to be available at www.beavercurlingclub.ca

